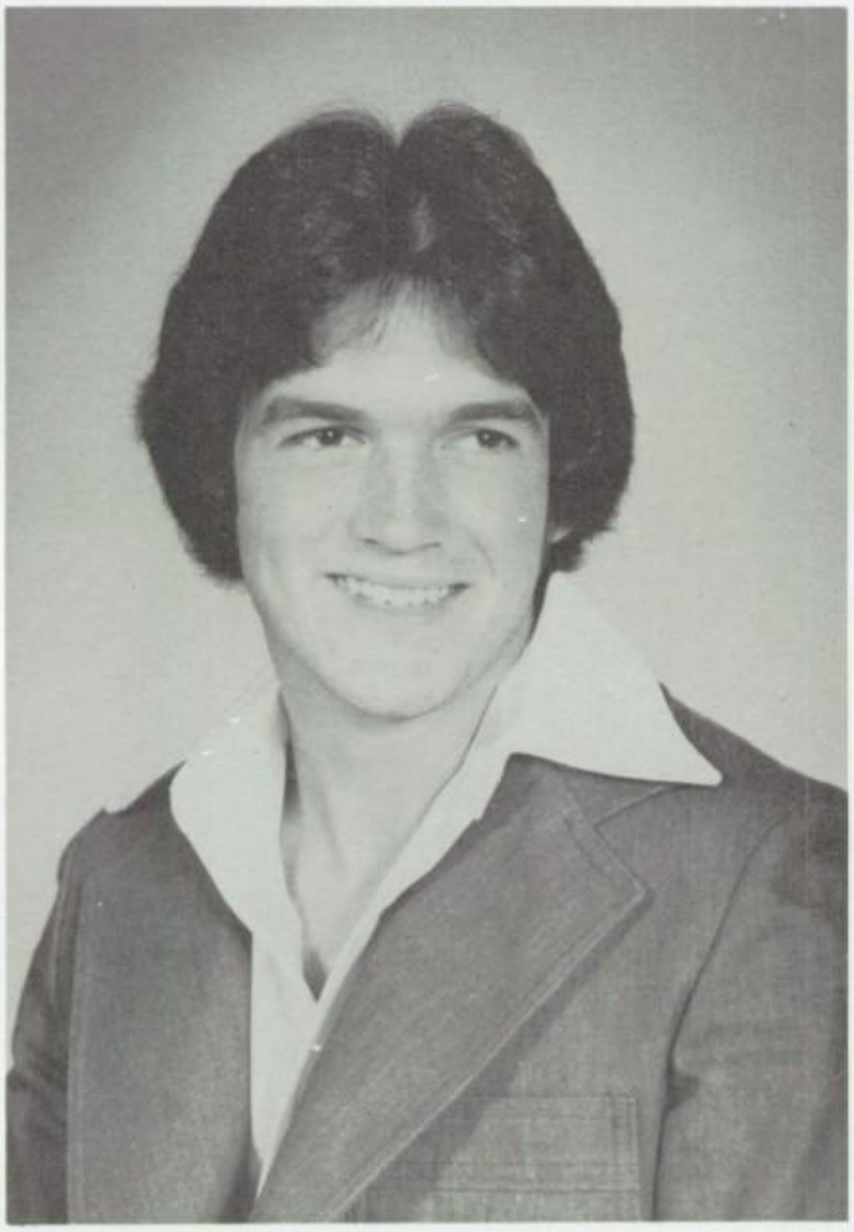
IN MEMORIAM



ALAN BROWN

1961-1979

God sent a little boy, later named Alan
To the rural home of THE BROWNS—
Just a normal Catholic family clan
Experiencing life's ups and downs.

He grew "in wisdom, grace and age"
He played, he studied, he worked on the farm—
Every year a Chapter, and each day a page,
Daily prayers asked that he be kept from harm.

Everyone recognized that big broad smile,
Alan was gentle and quiet and very secure,
He knew whence he came and that he was on file
In God's Master-Plan—yet, life had its lure.

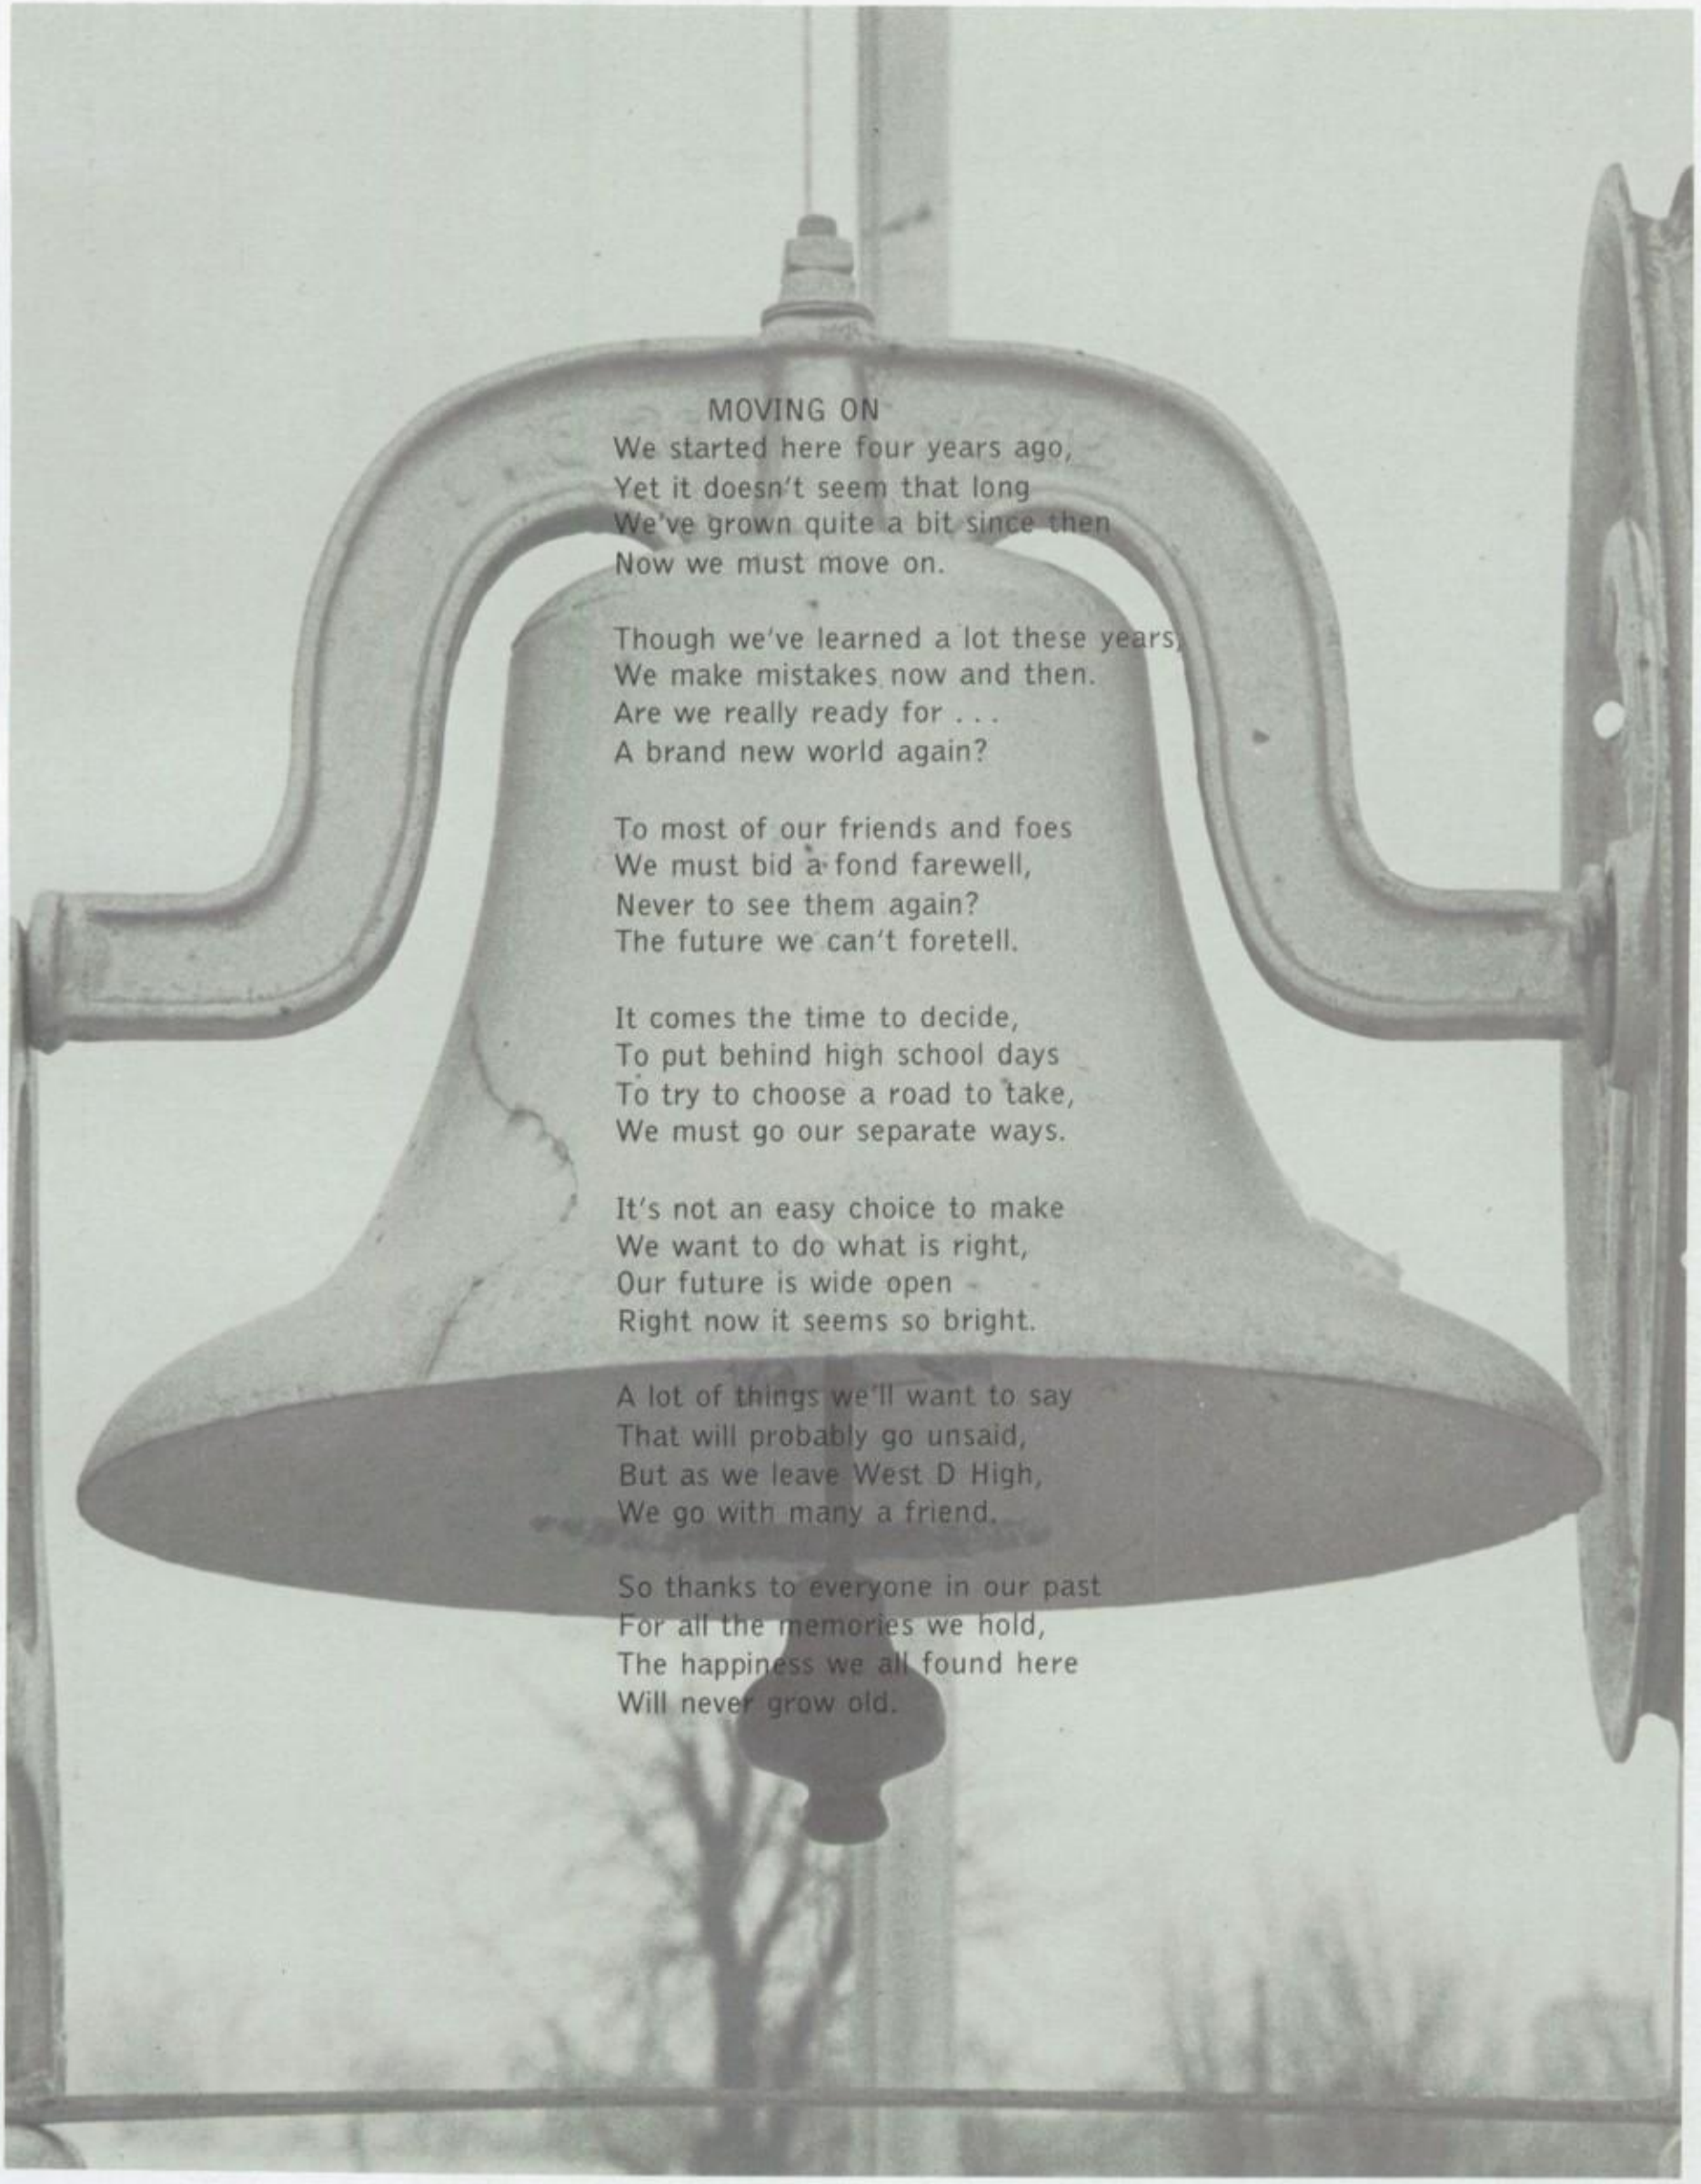
His interests broadened with the passing years
(Eighteen Chapters had been written in all).
He drew, he painted, he caused a few tears.
High school games and events were his port o' call.

Graduation neared with decisions to be made—
An evening retreat was part of the scene.
A picture of what happened there will n'er fade—
Alan said, "Oh my family I'm most keen."

Indications are that his priorities were straight
When he was called from our midst in a tragic moment.
The AUTHOR OF LIFE said, "Alan, the hour is late—
To your family and friends you were only lent.
Come home to your FATHER on this January twenty-seven date.
He will be missed—But, Thank God he was sent.

—Marlene Reid

THE SENIORS



MOVING ON

We started here four years ago,
Yet it doesn't seem that long
We've grown quite a bit since then
Now we must move on.

Though we've learned a lot these years,
We make mistakes now and then.
Are we really ready for . . .
A brand new world again?

To most of our friends and foes
We must bid a fond farewell,
Never to see them again?
The future we can't foretell.

It comes the time to decide,
To put behind high school days
To try to choose a road to take,
We must go our separate ways.

It's not an easy choice to make
We want to do what is right,
Our future is wide open -
Right now it seems so bright.

A lot of things we'll want to say
That will probably go unsaid,
But as we leave West D High,
We go with many a friend.

So thanks to everyone in our past
For all the memories we hold,
The happiness we all found here
Will never grow old.

"You don't have to go around looking like a bum all the time, Dick."

"This oughta make Tony proud of me."

"Help, it's got me."

"Very interesting."

"This place has got me climbing the walls."

BOBCAT MANIA

Homecoming 1978 at Western Dubuque High School proved highly successful as did the festivities leading up to the big game. The Bobcats thrilled their fans with a 42-7 win over Clinton St. Mary's.

The 1978 Homecoming marked the first year for class floats, and Principal Harold Kuntsen awarded the "spirit stick" to the senior class. Inclement weather cancelled the traditional powder puff game.

Special recognition was afforded WD faculty member Helen Williams at halftime when she was recognized as the "most enthusiastic teacher."

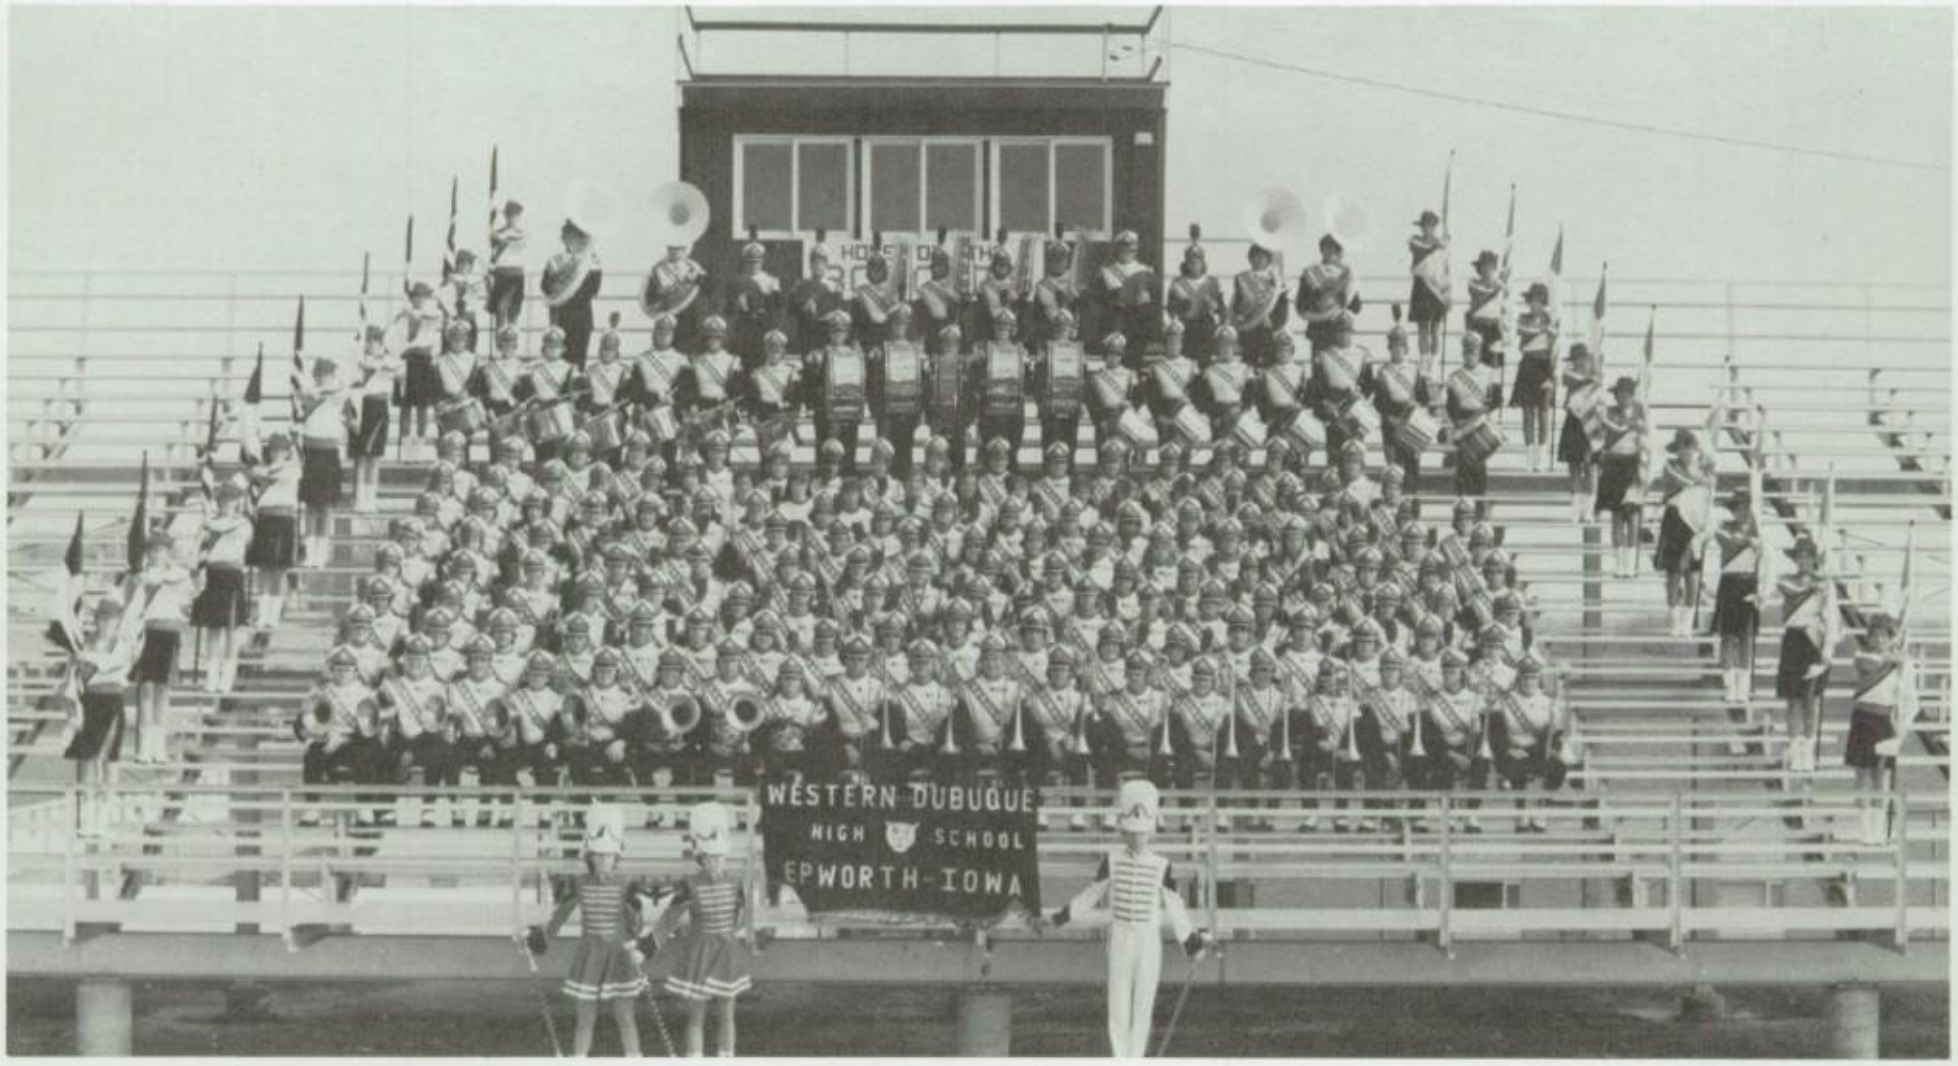
BOBCAT MARCHING BAND



COTTON BOWL PARADE
DALLAS, TEXAS-1979

It was a busy year for the 200 member Bobcat Marching Band as they started their season with a performance at the National Jaycee Parade in Atlantic City in July. While visiting the east coast the band also performed in Philadelphia at the John F. Kennedy Plaza and for a Phillies/Cubs double-header at Vets Stadium. August took the band to Des Moines for the State Fair Parade where they captured the coveted Governors Cup Sweepstakes Award. In October the Bobcats won a Division "I" rating at the State Marching Contest. In December the band traveled to San Antonio to perform at the Alamo and on New Year's Day they appeared in the Cotton Bowl Parade in Dallas. In late January the band was selected to perform for Inaugural Ceremonies for Governor Robert Ray.
